

Curriculum vitae: Donald L. Lamm

Professor of Urology at the Mayo Clinic, Scottsdale, Arizona.

Training:

Pre-medical and medical school education at the University of California, Los Angeles

Residency training at the University of California, San Diego.

Direction of numerous clinical cancer trials in urologic oncology and published over 100 clinical and experimental manuscripts dealing with the treatment of urologic malignancies.

Initiator and Director of the Southwest Oncology Group studies in superficial bladder cancer which led to the FDA approval of BCG immunotherapy for the treatment of carcinoma in situ of the bladder. This treatment has revolutionized the treatment of bladder cancer.